SCS LEGENDS OF COACHING 2026 HONOREE – Don LaMont

Coach Don LaMont left a long and lasting imprint on southern California swimming both as a club coach and a college coach. His legacy lives on through the many coaches he inspired and through a coaching tree that includes his son Ken LaMont, associate head coach of the Irvine Novas, and many others. Coach Lamont

Don was inducted into the ASCA Hall of Fame in 2008 in recognition of a long career that spanned over 60 years. He made his name coaching for 25 years at USC alongside Peter Daland, where he earned a spot in the Los Angeles County Hall of Fame, as head coach at the Desert Storm Swim Club in Las Vegas, and at El Monte Swim Club, where a number of legendary swimmers of the 70s and 80s got their start. He coached a total of 17 All-Americans and 13 Olympians in his career, and served as a Team USA coach in New Zealand, Italy, France, Russia, West Germany, and Japan. Among the names that headline his long resume are swimming Hall of Famers Sandy Neilson-Bell, a 3-time Olympic gold medalist at the 1972 Games in Munich and eventual Masters Swimming legend; 8-time Olympic medalist Shirley Babashoff while at USC; Sippy Woodhead during her time at USC; and 4-time Olympic medalist Jill Sterkel.

Venerated and beloved, he earned widespread admiration and recognition for success in his early days while coaching teams in Southern California. Both the El Monte and Industry Hills Aquatics Clubs were regularly ranked top 10 nationally. A 1958 Pepperdine business administration graduate, LaMont taught junior high and coached the 200-member El Monte Parks and Recreation program from 1961-79. In 1979, he moved El Monte Aquatics to the newly built Industry Hills pool and led a successful program with 300-plus swimmers until 1984, when he moved on to a successful college coaching career at USC. Don is a shining example of what can be done simply by giving it your all. While his accomplishments were great, his impact on those in his swimming world was even greater.
