SCS LEGENDS OF COACHING 2025 HONOREE – PETER DALAND

One name comes up repeatedly as the most influential person by many of Southern California's premier coaches. That man is Peter Daland. He brought professionalism to the sport of swimming. He was an icon in our sport that was willing to share his knowledge, give of his time and share his love for the sport with his swimmers and other coaches here in Southern California. If anyone deserves the title of the father of swimming in Southern California, it's Peter Daland.

Coach Peter Daland was the head U.S. Olympic coach of the women's team in 1964 and the men's team in 1972. Coach Daland also served as Director of Competition for the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. Coach Daland had filled various national coaching duties over the years, coaching teams in Russia, GDR, World University Games, and the Olympics. Coach Daland coached 33 swimmers to Olympic berths since 1960. Coach Daland is a former president of the American Swimming Coaches Association and former president of the Worlds Swimming Coaches Association.

Coach Daland, along with Al Schoenfeld, founded Swimming World magazine in 1951. In 2009, he authored "The History of Olympic Swimming, Volume I: 1896-1936."

In 1978, after adoption of the Olympic Sports Act, Coach Daland helped to reorganize swimming in Southern California to comply with the NGB guidelines for USA Swimming. The result was the formation of the Local Swimming Committee (LSC), Southern California Swimming.

Coach Daland won all three major national team championships — 8 NCAA, 14 National AAU Men's, and 2 National AAU Women's (LAAC). Specializing in family dynasties, Peter had the good fortune of championship wins from the brothers Devine, Bottoms, Furniss, Orr, and the House brother and sister act. His Trojan teams have won more than 160 dual meets with more than 100 individual titles. As of 1974, Coach Daland's ongoing record boasted 183 individual national champions. Coach Daland began in New York City graduating from Swarthmore in 1948 and got his first coaching job at Rose Valley, PA, where he won 8 straight Suburban League titles (1947-55). He founded and was the first coach of the Philadelphia Suburban Swim Club and served as an assistant to Bob Kiphuth at Yale before heading west in 1956 as coach of USC and the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

CONTINUING THE HISTORY OF LEGENDARY COACHES IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA SWIMMING SINCE 2024:

It is the intent of the La Mirada Armada to commemorate the many coaches that, like Kevin Perry, have served successfully as both coach and leader in SCS. Each year we will recognize a new coach in the SCS Legends of Coaching Series. In year one the La Mirada Armada recognized Kevin Perry as the first honoree of the Legends in SCS Coaching Series.
