HISTORY AND FUTURE OF THE KEVIN PERRY INVITATIONAL

The Kevin Perry Invitational has been a premier ‘Signature Event’ in SCS for more than 15 years. It was named after one of the great coaches in SCS, Kevin Perry. Kevin was the successful coach of the Fullerton Aquatics Swim Team (FAST) and a respected volunteer serving SCS in many positions, including General Chair..

Kevin is often cited as responsible for bringing SCS into the 21st Century with an appreciation for the increasing time restraints on two income families and heavily burdened students. Kevin was an avid golfer, a historian of our sport and a friend to all the coaches and swimmers in Southern California swimming. Kevin was an innovator and a thinking man’s coach. He was uniquely successful in getting our LSC to work together. Unfortunately, Kevin was taken from all of us prematurely. Kevin passed away in 2008 and the current form of the KP invitational was renamed after Kevin in 2009.

One of Kevin’s many great swimmers, Olympian Tyler Clary, remembered Kevin in the following way, In 2012 Tyler Clary dedicated his Olympic gold medal performance in the 200 Back to Coach Perry who guided him to the medals at 2006 World Youth Games and 2007 Pan American Games before becoming a Gold Medal Olympian.

STARTING IN 2025:

It is the intent of the La Mirada Armada to morph the traditional ‘KP’ event into a new event that commemorates the many coaches that, like Kevin, have served successfully as both coach and leader in SCS. Each year we will recognize a new coach in the SCS Legends of Coaching Series. We will be returning the title of the Kevin Perry meet back to the Fullerton Swim Team where it rightfully belongs. This year the La Mirada Armada will recognize Kevin as the first of the Legends in SCS Coaching Series, before moving on to recognize many others in the years to come.
